Consultations:

Environmental Health comments:

"I have reviewed the proposed plans for change of use to class 6 HMO which were received by post on 1st August and I do not wish to raise any objections to the proposals. I note that the application specifies that the accommodation is for 3 sharers plus the applicant. The current layout and facilities as shown in the submitted plan are sufficient for a maximum of 5 sharers in total.

I should like to draw the applicants attention to <https://www.gov.gg/housingstandards> which details the current minimum standards for rental accommodation. It should be noted that the States of Guernsey passed the Housing (Standards and Regulation) (Enabling Provisions) Law in 2021. The purpose of this law is to enable the drafting of legislation which will improve rental property housing standards, including houses in multiple occupation. The applicant is advised to consider their application in relation to future legal requirements, and I would be happy to discuss any proposed amendments to the submitted plans."

Summary of Issues:

The main considerations include:

- the principle of development
- the impacts of the proposed change of use on amenity

Assessment against:1 - Purposes of the law.

The objectives set out in Section 1(2) of The Land Planning and Development (Guernsey) Law, 2005, 'the Law', have been considered and this report forms part of the assessment, with policy issues set out in Section 2 below.

2 - Relevant policies of any Plan, Subject Plan or Local Planning Brief.Principle of the change of use Policy MC2 sets out that housing development includes new build housing, change of use to housing from other uses and the conversion and subdivision of existing buildings. The plan also seeks to provide a mix of tenures, housing sizes and types. This scheme relates to the subdivision of an existing dwelling to offer a house of multiple occupation (HMO) with 5 rooms which would make more efficient use of an existing building in line with the aims of Policy MC2 and the Island Development Plan (IDP).

The scheme does not propose any external alterations to the building. The proposal therefore would not have a detrimental impact on the character and appearance of the Conservation Area in accordance with Policy GP4 of the IDP.

Impacts on amenity

The amenity provided by the proposal for future occupants has been considered and although there are some areas of the proposal which do not comply with the Code of Good Practice for Renting Accommodation (CGPRA), for example, the lack of detail regarding the kitchen specification and kitchen storage and two bedrooms are more than one floor distance from the kitchen, the communal areas greatly exceed the minimum space requirements and there is good outdoor amenity provision.

Environmental Health have assessed the application and raised no objection to the proposal based on current requirements, have advised that amendments would be required should the legislation change and offered the applicant the opportunity to amend the proposal. The applicant declined and no revisions have been submitted.

Overall, the scheme broadly accords with the CGPRA guidance, and all bedrooms and the communal areas exceed the minimum space standards.

Neighbouring amenity has also been considered and as the site is located in a residential area, the use of the building as an HMO is compatible with the surrounding area. A mix of housing types within the Main Centre is encouraged by Policy MC2 and this inevitably leads to a mixture of tenures which may be more noticeable within a small group of houses which are currently occupied predominantly by single family groups. The use may be more intensive than at present, with more general disturbance and noise created as a result of increased occupancy, although it is not considered to be any more harmful than if a large single family occupied the dwelling.

Other issues:

Car/cycle parking

The proposal includes three car parking spaces and up to 6 uncovered bicycle spaces alongside the dwelling. Although these are uncovered spaces, the applicant has indicated that there is additional covered cycle parking within the shed located in the rear garden. This can only be accessed only through the house, but there is a direct, useable link through the utility room. In summary, the provision is considered adequate given the town centre location. In this respect, the proposal accords with Policies IP6, IP7, and the Parking Standards and Traffic Impact Assessment SPG.

3 - General material considerations set out in the General Provisions Ordinance.

In addition to the consideration of policy issues, Section 13 of the Land Planning and Development (General Provisions) Ordinance, 2007 identifies other material planning considerations which could be relevant. These include; the appropriateness of the development in relation to its surroundings in terms of design, layout, scale, siting and materials; the likely effect on the character and amenity of the locality; any possible fall-back position by way of extant planning permissions or exempt development; the likely effect on the reasonable enjoyment of neighbouring properties. These issues where relevant are considered above.

4 - Additional considerations (for protected trees, monuments, buildings and/or SSS's).

The proposal would have no adverse impact on protected trees, buildings or sites.
