The tree shall be protected in the agreed manner for the duration of building operations on the application site. Within the areas agreed to be protected, the existing ground level shall be neither raised nor lowered, and no materials or temporary building or surplus soil of any kind shall be placed or stored thereon. Conclusion/Brief comment:

This application is to erect a one and a half storey pitched roof northeast side extension and a small single storey flat roof extension to the rear southeast elevation, plus some alterations to the fenestration. Reposition the oil tank to the northeast front of the property.

The oil tank is proposed to be relocated along the east boundary where it would be partially adjacent to the neighbours shed and together with existing planting the oil tank will effectively be screened from public view. The oil tank is sited outside of the tree root protection area and a condition is recommended to ensure additional measures are put in place to protect the tree during construction works.

The proposals are considered to achieve a good standard of design, using materials which complement the existing materials. The extension will provide adequate levels of sunshine and daylight, and give the occupiers more flexible and adaptable accommodation.

The scale and massing of the new extension is not considered to have a detrimental effect on the character and amenity of the surrounding area, nor will it have any significant adverse impacts on either of the immediate neighbours.

Confirmation has been received that the development proposed has been designed to take into account matters of energy efficiency and current Building Regulations in accordance with Policy GP9.

The proposals are considered to conform to the above policies of the Island Development Plan and grant of permission is recommended, subject to conditions.

All material considerations as set out in the Land Planning and Development (Guernsey) Law, 2005 and the Land Planning and Development (General Provisions) Ordinance, 2007 have been taken into account in the assessment of this application.
