Conclusion/Brief comment:

This application is to raise the roof height (to match next door) and convert the attic by adding two small dormers to the front and one larger dormer to the rear of the property.
Extend the first floor over the rest of the ground floor at the rear of the property, install cladding at first floor level and some alterations to the fenestration.

At the pre-application stage the applicants initially wanted a captains' dormer at the front, but there are none in the area, therefore they have gone with two smaller flat roof dormers, similar to the neighbouring property, which are considered to be more appropriate for the age and style of the building.

At present, there is an element of overlooking from the existing first-floor windows. The introduction of an additional first-floor window (positioned further north) and a second-floor dormer window is therefore not considered to result in a significant intensification of the existing overlooking relationship.

The proposed rear dormer would be located approximately 4 metres from the boundary shared with Tarazed, which benefits from a courtyard/amenity area immediately to the rear. However, owing to the length and height of the existing rear flat-roof extension, it would not be possible for occupants to gain views from the proposed dormer into this amenity space. Views would instead be directed towards the garden area of the neighbouring property, Ladyfield, but at a sufficient distance to avoid undue harm to residential amenity. Furthermore, existing first-floor rear-facing windows, which are positioned closer to the boundary, already afford views towards this garden area. As such, the proposal would not materially exacerbate the existing overlooking relationship and is not considered to give rise to an unacceptable impact on neighbouring amenity.

The proposals are considered to achieve a good standard of design, using materials which complement the existing materials. The extension and dormers will provide adequate levels of sunshine and daylight and give the occupiers more flexible and adaptable accommodation.

The scale and massing of the new extension and dormers are not considered to have a detrimental effect on the character and amenity of the surrounding area, nor will it have any impact on either of the immediate neighbours. The proposals will not have any impacts on the setting of the Protected Building.

Confirmation has been received that the development proposed has been designed to take into account matters of energy efficiency and current Building Regulations in accordance with Policy GP9.

The proposals are considered to conform to the above policies of the Island Development Plan and grant of permission is recommended, subject to conditions.

All material considerations as set out in the Land Planning and Development (Guernsey) Law, 2005 and the Land Planning and Development (General Provisions) Ordinance, 2007 have been taken into account in the assessment of this application.
